

Job Title: Working student / Intern (m/f/d) Corporate Communications

Allianz Investment Management (AIM) is the internal investment manager of the Allianz Group, responsible for managing the risk/return profile of its approx. € 700 bn investment portfolio. We develop, manage and implement the investment strategy for Allianz's policyholders worldwide - sustainably and responsibly. Our global network of more than 500 employees from over 60 countries is organized in regional hubs located in Munich/Stuttgart, Milan, Minneapolis, Paris, and Singapore. It offers multifaceted career opportunities for outstanding investment talents.

AIM provides the perfect opportunity to embark on or continue your international career. AIM continues to grow and supports its employees to do the same. We believe that work should be rewarding, and that good work should be rewarded. We offer opportunities and strive for excellence. And our actions are guided first and foremost by high ethical standards and our sense of commitment to society.

Job purpose/role

As an intern/working student in Corporate Communications, you'll be an integral part of our dynamic team, working closely with the Head of Communications. This position offers a rare opportunity to immerse yourself in the vast spectrum of communication disciplines, from external and internal communications to the evolving landscape of social media.

You are a passionate writer and proactive team member who thrives in a fast-paced, international environment with excellent communication skills? Then we are looking forward to hearing from you!

Key responsibilities

- Craft compelling content that resonates with various audiences, aligning with our company's voice and objectives.
- Collaborate in a global setting, offering you a bird's-eye view and hands-on experience in all facets of our communication strategy.
- Supporting the day-to-day business of Corporate Communications.
- Writing, editing and proofreading English-language content for different communication channels.
- Liaising with various stakeholder groups including international project teams.

Key requirements / Skills / Experience

- Enrolled in a Bachelor's or Master's degree program (preferred) in communications, marketing, business, or a related field for the entire duration of the position.
- Excellent writing and communication skills in English and German.
- Interest in investment-related and/or sustainability topics.
- Initial experience with content management systems is an advantage.
- Initial experience in video editing is an advantage.
- MS Office skills (Sharepoint, Word, Excel, Powerpoint).
- Team player with excellent intercultural and interpersonal skills.

Additional Information

In order to consider your application properly, we kindly ask for the following documents from your side: CV, Cover Letter, Employer testimonials / references or recommendation letters (if any), University grades/transcripts of records and high-school transcript (if possible) and your current Certificate of enrollment. Please upload these documents when applying for the role.

Internship entry date: June/July 2024, ideally the internship lasts 4-6 months and you must be registered as a student for the entire duration of the internship.
